My suggestion is the following:

The HRS evaluation identified contaminants similar to those located on-site which appear to have migrated off-site into wetlands and Redfish Bay at concentrations that may impact the environment.

Page 12, 28 d. - October 9, 2003 Order sent from EPA

Original Sentence:

Although, the HRS evaluation did show contaminants similar to the contaminants located on-site that appear to have migrated off-site into wetlands and Redfish Bay at concentrations that may impact the environment.
(original sentence not complete)

Suggested revision to original sentence:

Although the HRS evaluation did show contaminants similar to the 9567971

contaminants located on-site that appear to have migrated off-site into wetlands and Redfish Bay, the contaminants identified in the HRS evaluation appear at concentrations that may impact the environment.

Let me know.
